Description:

Participants will be presented with strategies for making a user-friendly classroom library – taking into consideration the grade level and classroom curriculum. All participants should bring a “snapshot” list of titles currently used in their classroom libraries.

Presenter will book talk titles, present classroom strategies for getting children excited about books and introduce “reading books” incentives. Custom template for book reports will also be shared with teachers.

Participants will be given the opportunity to preview many new titles and a brainstorm session will follow with all participants exchanging ideas.

Note: If you have registration questions, please email registration@salemcollaborative.org or call Jim Kearns, CPMSIE Executive Director at 781-771-4860.
